

Councillor Alastair Pearson joined the Parish Council in 2020. He represents Hill Ward. He is Vice-Chair of the Council, and of the Plans Assessment Committee. He has lived in Chalford since 1997, although he and his wife were regular visitors to the village for many years before that.

He moved here from London, where he worked for over 20 years. His career has been in further education, as a teacher, manager and inspector. He is now largely retired. He loves Chalford. He enjoys walking locally, mountain biking in the surrounding hills and valleys, and playing tennis at Chalford Tennis Club. He is also a Trustee at Thomas Keble School.
